"ARTHUR's" U.S. NAVAL CONTACTS (1943)

From: WASHINGTON

To: MOSCOW

No: 1555

8 July 43

To: [Name No. 42].^[i]ARTHUR^[ii] has reported:

1. Recently the Americans have more than once told him about the concentration of a combined Japanese force on PARAMUSHIR (naval and air forces). They are asking questions as to whether this is being done with a view to starting offensive operations against the Americans on ATTU or against KAMCHATKA. The composition of the forces was not reported.
2. In connection with the arrival of our ice-breaker "JOSEPH STALIN" ARTHUR was visited by an officer who described himself as Captain of one of the five big U.S. ice-breakers which are being rebuilt in LOS ANGELES, and who said [H% that] ice-breakers were not being used at present. The Americans had no experience of navigation in ice and therefore would be glad to take part in our ice-breaking campaign in
